H. Huhn Starts for Philadelphia to be
Operated on for Appendicitis.

Leaves on Special Train.

Leaving from Philadelphia in a private car the trip back to his home, and the patient was attached to an engine, and left here Saturday afternoon Philadelphia to the Florida East Coast Railroads. C. H. Huhn, a wealthy physician, and his wife, Mrs. C. H. Huhn, arrived in Daytona Friday night late hour, and in Sunday's Daily

News it was reported that Dr. Huhn had been operated upon for appendicitis, and that he was to be operated upon again. It was thought he would be able to stand

SWIFT RACE FOR LIFE.

H. Huhn Starts for Philadelphia to be
Operated on for Appendicitis.

Leaves on Special Train.

Leaving from Philadelphia in a private man's palace car, handled to Jacksonville by the Seaboard Air Line Railway, from Jacksonville to Daytona by a hal engine over the Florida East Coast Railway, C. H. Huhn, a wealthy chum of Philadelphia, accompanied Dr. C. H. Deaver, and two trained nurses, arrived in Daytona Friday night late hour, as told in Saturday's Daily News.

Mr. Huhn was speeding to the bedside of his son, who was suffering with a severe attack of appendicitis, in this city. Deaver and the trained nurses accompanied Mr. Huhn, as it was thought operation would have to be performed.

It was thought, however, that the younger Mr. Huhn would be able to stand the trip back to his home, and the private car was attached to an engine, and left here Saturday afternoon for Philadelphia.

Mr. Huhn came to Florida about two weeks ago for his health. He had a touch of appendicitis, but thought the mild climate of Florida would benefit him. He settled at Daytona, where he intended remaining for the winter, but was seized with another severe attack, so wired his father to come to his assistance.

Dr. Deaver is said to be one of the best appendicitis experts in the country, and, immediately upon the arrival of the young man in Philadelphia, an operation will be performed, in the hope of saving his life.

SEABREEZE AND DAYTONA BEACH

Things Heard and Seen on the Peninsula Opposite Daytona of Interest to Our Readers.

Friday was a banner day for the fishermen on Potter's Pier. Judge P. M. Phillips, of New York, guest of The Breakers, early in the forenoon succeeded in landing a 95-pound kingfish after a protracted struggle of thirty-five minutes. This is the largest fish of the kind ever caught here, and created much enthusiasm among those present at the "round-up."

Not to be too far outdone, Geo. B. Wood, who is also a guest of The Breakers, and has been carrying off many of the prizes, engaged the attention of a 10-pound sea bass that led him a race from shallow water to the end of the pier on one side and from the end of the pier to shallow water again, until exhausted, he was hauled in on the beach.

Mr. Wood left for Palm Beach Friday, much to the regret of his friends at The Breakers. Mr. Wood is in the seventies, but is quite young and has a fund of good stories which he tells well, not to be mentioned, of course, in connection with the fish story, which is duly authenticated and attested by Messrs. Creighton and Crocker, neither of whom could be tempted to exaggerate even in relating a fish story.

Chas. H. Weed of Pittsfield Mass., is expected to arrive here this week. Mr. Weed and his daughter, Miss Weed, stenographer of the Colonades, spent last winter in New Smyrna, since which time Mr. Weed is satisfied that there is no place like Florida for the winter season.

At the last council meeting Jas. A. Baggett's resignation as alderman was sent in and approved; S. E. Gilmore was put on the finance committee. A special election will be ordered by the Mayor to fill Jas. Baggett's unexpired term, the second Tuesday in January.

Mr. and Mrs. McClanahan, whose return has been pleasantly anticipated by their friends for several weeks, arrived Friday, and are established for the winter in their home on Valley Street.

A 3-story cottage is to be erected on Myrtle Avenue, Daytona, for R. M. Knox by our popular contractor and builder, L. Z. Burdick. It is to be completed by February, 1906.

R. T. Butler has greatly increased the value of his property on Ocean Boulevard and Pinewood Street by having a windmill with servants' room below, convenient to his two cottages.

Miss Kate Lee of Battle Creek, O., arrived here a few days ago, and will spend the winter as the guest of Mrs. W. Herrick and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Land.

Mrs. W. L. Duggett has returned from a protracted visit to her mother at Lake Como.

Clark G. Smith, photographer, is putting up a Kodak Club building on his property on Grandview Street, which he expects to have completed by January 1.

Mrs. Isabella Granger arrived here from Ashtabula, O., Wednesday afternoon of last week, and will spend the winter with Miss Blakesie. She was here several winters ago, and was, of course, converted to the idea that Seabreeze is an ideal place to spend the winter.

Mrs. Elma G. Stevens, to the regret of many friends, left for Sanford Thursday of last week. She hopes to return in January and remain until spring.

Mr. Hartshorn, of the firm of Frank T. Peck & Co., Daytona, and family expect to remove to Daytona after the Christmas holidays. The cottage they are occupying has changed hands, and it is in anticipation of the new owners wanting possession, as well as for his own business convenience, that the changes will be made.

Paid the Carrier Boys.

The carrier boys of the Daily News work independently of the office, and purchase the papers from this establishment, they having to pay so much for each paper delivered. The management of the Daily News desires that each carrier subscriber settle promptly for the paper each week with the carrier.

Sunday afternoon, shortly after the mail had arrived, the postoffice building and its vicinity presented a congested scene and it was clear to everyone who was posted about in the small structure that something should be done to remedy this condition. There was barely standing room, and those who did make an attempt to stand, found that it was disagreeable to be punched with an elbow occasionally, so many made their way out of the building until the crowd had ceased.

The above is only an illustration of the inadequate postoffice building. That something should be done to remedy

this was a remark heard on every hand.

"This hack nuisance should be abated," remarked a visitor, who was waiting yesterday afternoon at the station for a relative. Continuing, he said that he arrived in the city a week ago, and as he walked from the station to a hotel, two blocks distant, he was constantly annoyed. After telling the colored man he did not care to ride, he was made a target for some mild abuse. He says if he could ever get a glimpse of the driver, that he would have a warrant for his arrest.

THE COMING CITY ELECTION.

A Possibility of Several After the Mayoralty Job.—Greene, Gove,
Harris and Smith Mentioned.

The coming municipal election in Daytona promises to be exceedingly interesting.

The mayoralty race will be the chief feature of the election and there will probably be several candidates for the office.

Mayor Smith says he thinks that he will stand for reelection, while it is reported that S. H. Gove, Edward G. Harris and E. W. Greene will in due time give notice that they will be candidates for the place.

All of the above mentioned gentlemen are identified with the best interests of Daytona, and each would admirably fill the office of Mayor.

The mayoralty chair is a trying one to fill, as most every property holder, during certain times in the year, have kicks to lodge, and in some instances they are unreasonable.

Will Be a Busy Week.

This week promises to witness such a season of business in Daytona as will tax the ability of our merchants to accommodate. Our leading retailers have an established reputation for carrying big stocks of goods of the best and most varied quality and quantity at all seasons, but at the Christmas season they appear to doubly excel. This is generally understood in the trading territory natural to the city and as a result our holiday trade is always big. This season gives promise of exceeding all previous years in volume. The trade has already commenced. The Daily News advises readers to study well our advertising columns this week. They will greatly assist them by suggestions and show them where to buy.

Annoyed By Hackmen.

MOST BEAUTIFUL FLORIDA GIRL

Will Crown the Speed King in the Contest
Against Time on the Ormond-

Daytona Beach Course.

Who is the most beautiful and popular Florida girl?

Christmas morning a contest will commence, to be conducted by the Jacksonville Times-Union, to determine who is the most popular and beautiful girl in Florida. The contest will close at midnight, January 17.

The young lady selected, with her chaperon, will come to Daytona and crown whoever makes the fastest time in the International Automobile Tournament, the speed king of the world.

While here, the expenses of the young lady and her chaperon, will be paid by the Times-Union, and they will be entertained by the Florida East Coast Automobile Association.

The Times-Union will also give a one thousand dollar trophy to the winner of the two-mile-a-minute race.

The design of the trophy is as follows:

Looks Bright And Prosperous.

The Daytona Daily News the latest addition to the daily journalism of Florida, and it looks bright and prosperous.

It is a mighty good sign that the people of Florida are doing well when newspapers, especially daily newspapers, are increasing in numbers.—Live Oak Democrat.

Theater Party.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Gunn chaperoned a theater party at the matinee Saturday afternoon consisting of the following charming young ladies: Misses Florence Moore, Dollie Jackson, Bessie Bingham, Fannie Ray, Lillian Bingham, Ella Wilhelmina, Rosie Dittman and Marion Thompson.

A Poem for Today

YOUTH AND AGE

By Susan Coolidge

Youth could know what age knows without teaching,
Hope's instability and Love's dear folly,
The difference between practicing and preaching,
The quiet charm that lurks in melancholy,
The after bitterness of tasted pleasure;
That temperance of feeling and of words'
Is health of mind, and the calm fruits of leisure

Have sweater taste than feverish zeal affords;
That reason has a joy beyond unreason;
That nothing satisfies the soul like truth;
That kindness conquers in and out of season—
If youth could know why, youth would not be youth.

If age could feel the undulatingurgence,
The pulse of life that beats in youthful veins,
And with its swift, resistless ebb and surge;
Make light of difficulties, sport and pain;
Could once, just once, retrace the path and find it,
That lovely, foolish zeal, so crude, so young,
Which bids defiance to all laws to bind it
And flashes in quick eye and limb and tongue,
Which, counting dross for gold, is rich in dreaming,
And, reckoning moon as suns, is never cold,
And, having naught, has everything in seeming—
If age could do all this, age were not old.

ANDRE'S REQUEST

By N. P. Willis

NATHANIEL PARKER WILLIS, poet and journalist, died in Portland, Me., Jan. 20, 1866, and died near Cornwall, N. Y., on his sixty-first birthday. He was prominent for many years in New York literary circles, being in 1840 "beyond a doubt the most popular, the best paid and in every way the most successful magazine editor that America had yet seen." The story of Major John Andre, the young and gallant British spy who assisted in Benedict Arnold's plot, is well known to readers of American history. He was captured at Tarrytown, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1780, and hanged Oct. 2.

I can give up the young fame
I burned to win—
All—but the spotless name
I glory in.
Thine is the power to give,
Thine to deny,
Joy for the hour I live—
Calmness to die,
By all the brave should cherish,
By my dying breath,
I ask that I may perish
By a soldier's death!

Word Corruption:
"I later heard," says a writer in T. P.'s London Weekly, "of a country inn which boasted for its sign, 'The Jackass'." Word corruption like this has given many quaint signs to our inns. Among the better known may be, "The Cat and the Compass," derived from the words, "God compassed us"; "The Bull and Mouth" from the Bedouine mouth after the caravan, or before Boulogne harbor; and "The Pig and Whistle" from the pig and wassail alabung to the pigs driven into the old wasail bowl to mark the point to which the taper might climb as his turn comes round. The sign common in Lancashire of the Stoney arms, an eagle carrying a shield is popularly referred to as "The Bird of Barrow."

Marrying on Account:
Rev. Mr. Williams was the Congregational minister in the village of Winslow, Me., several years ago. One evening, says a correspondent of the Boston Globe, four young people called at the parsonage. Two of them wished to be married.

The papers in the case were legal so Mr. Williams performed the ceremony. The other couple acted as bridesmaid and best man. The groom was the son of a well known man in the town, and as the happy couple were leaving the parsonage the young man whispered to Mr. Williams:

"Just charge it to father, parson. It will be all right."

Sunday Card Playing Laws.

There was a time when people in England were forbidden by law to play at cards even in their own houses, on Sunday. In the royal proclamation against vice, profaneness and immorality read every session and assize, is the following passage: "And we do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's day at dice, cards or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses or other places whatsoever."

Enlarged Finger Joints.
Enlarged finger joints are the source of annoyance and mortification. Sometimes they are caused by pulling the fingers to make the joints "crack." Sometimes they are the result of hard work, rheumatism or gout. They may be relieved by light rotary massage rubbing around and around and around on the joints with the thumb and fingers and stroking upwards accompanied by the application of oil of wintergreen.

Only Forty Licensed Dogs.

Mayor Smith, in speaking with a Daily News representative today, said the dog nuisance in this town should be stopped. He referred to the fact that oftentimes during the day fights would take place on the principal streets, thereby causing excitement among the feminine sex. Mayor Smith says that many dogs are without licenses, and he advises owners to immediately procure them. There are about forty licensed cans in the city.

....Wanted....
1,000 Reporters!

The Daily News wants 1,000 reporters. No, this is not a joke. We really want them, and we won't be happy until we get them.

In other words, The Daily News wants every person, male and female, 18 years of age and over, in Daytona and its environs, to get on the staff of the paper. The Daily News wants every scrap of local news that is worth printing to appear in its columns. The best way to get it is to ask the people who know about the news to send it to the paper.

So if you know of anything that has happened, or is about to happen, tell the City Editor about it or write to him.

Let every man and woman, youth and maid in and around Daytona become a reporter The Daily News.

Christmas Suggestions:

Suit, Overcoat, Hat, Underwear, Neckwear
Gloves, Hosiery, Shirts, Shoes, Night Robe,
Suspenders, Cuff Links, Umbrella, Slippers,
Collars and Cuffs, Rain Coat.

"Christmas Bells will soon be ringing and the old problem of "What shall I give him for Christmas," will once more confront you.

We have made a few suggestions above and, should you fail to find a suitable item on the list, we would be pleased to have you call and we'll do all in our power to assist you. A good rule to follow in selecting gifts for a man is to buy what he would be apt to buy for himself.

All our prices are moderate, and we are always at your service.

The Globe,

116 south Beach street, Daytona, Fla.

W. A. McMahon, of New York City, who is connected with the Regal Shoe Company, has arrived in Daytona to accept a position with Anthony Brothers during the season.

Mrs. L. C. Sayler and friends, of St. Louis, Mo., will arrive at Daytona about the first of the year to spend the winter. She will occupy the Pellecier cottage on Ridgewood Avenue.

"Confusion" was the bill for last Saturday night, and "Charlie's Aunt" was the play at the matinee. Both excited the usual roar of laughter.

Sunday at the Churches.

There was a fair attendance at the services in the various churches on Sunday.

The pastors presided and discoursed their sermons, with the exception of the First Baptist Church, who had Rev. J. F. Edwards, of DeLand, who preached a most eloquent sermon. This well-known divine is known to many Daytona people, and his sermon was well received.

He is editor of the Southern Witness, a widely circulated church publication.

At the evening gatherings the attendance was small, as many of the churchgoers, for fear of being taken ill, did not go out into raw weather.

A Good Week To Advertise.

The Daily News, on many occasions, has been demonstrated as a good advertising medium, but the wise merchant who wants to have telling advertising should advertise in these columns the entire week. Short, catchy advertisements in plain type are exceptionally good, or write-ups of a business attracts the eye.

If you think that advertising will help your business, send in your copy early, or telephone the Daily News. Our number is 18.

Sunday School Entertainment.

Great preparations are being made by the Sunday School children of the First Baptist Church for the Christmas exercises to take place next Sunday evening in the church. The program will consist of a cantata, recitations, etc.
